

SPEAKER SERIES

Brought to You by Chamber of Eco Commerce

‘Eco Call to Action’

Guaranteed to Inform and Inspire

We invite you to join us for Eco Call to Action events!

As the world of Eco Commerce evolves, the Chamber of Eco Commerce (CEC) remains connected to our glocal (global and local) community we serve, and to the partners who support us.

CEC’s dedication to high quality expertise has made CEC the world’s leading independent business alliance in the discipline of Eco Commerce.

The CEC of Atlanta will start a tradition of excellence by offering Eco Call to Action speaker series. Audiences will have an opportunity to experience and learn from remarkable experts and professionals who have changed the business and shaped lives of people.

Participants will have the opportunity to meet innovators, business and policy leaders, experts and professionals, best-selling authors, catalytic philanthropists, explorers and celebrated personalities offering profound insights and lively discussion.

The ‘Eco Call to Action’ speaker series and events offer you the opportunity to learn, share, and shake hands in an event, from which you will benefit and remember for a lifetime.

The ‘Eco Call to Action’ world tour will travel from Atlanta across the U.S. to worldwide destinations with remarkable speakers. Audiences have many opportunities to experience and join these local events.

Don’t miss these ultimate events presented by leaders of vision, experience, and expertise. You will be challenged and you will leave empowered and inspired!
